Shannon Jones, Author

Shannon's love of travel opened her eyes and ears to the world at a young age. As a grownup, living in the Netherlands, with her kitty KeeKee, the idea for KeeKee's Big Adventures was born. After twenty years in the marketing field, Shannon is following her writing passion and helping kids in their quest for learning and discovery.

Casey Uhelski, Illustrator

Casey graduated with honors from the Savannah College of Art and Design with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in illustration. As a little girl, she loved books, doodling, and daydreaming. She has happily gone on to pursue a career as a children's book illustrator.

"A smashing great book! Gorgeous, fabulous, and so funny!"

- Leslie McGuirk, author of Wiggens Learns His Manners

"Adorable KeeKee approaches Athens, Greece, with a researcher's fervor and child's innocent curiosity. This clever kitty introduces icons of the country to eager readers with funny dialogue, approachable factoids, and images that will amuse and delight."

- Foreword Reviews

"A lovely picture book. Excellent for teaching young children about other countries in a fun way and piquing their curiosity about the world."

- Gone with the Family: Adventures in Family Travel
